

Twinkl Educational Publishing named best learning resources by Association of American Publishers

Twinkl's teaching materials have won a REVERE Award for Classroom: Supplemental Resources - Innovation.

In the company of a diverse group of innovative and rich educational resources, Twinkl's win shows the exceptional quality of the product which was designed to help educators by providing instant access to high quality teaching materials.

For more than 50 years, the REVERE Awards (Recognising Valuable Educational Resources) have identified the best content for educating learners on any platform - print, digital, or blended. The REVERE Awards evaluation process is rigorous with both educator and industry professional judges evaluating each entry. This year's finalists and winners, extensively vetted by educators and learning resource industry professionals, are exciting and engaging products that include classroom resources, whole curriculum, magazines, and integrated marketing campaigns.

Heather McAvan, Twinkl's Chief Customer Understanding Officer, said: "Being honoured for producing outstanding learning resources is a prestigious and special achievement for Twinkl. We strive to create content that is significant to meaningful educational experiences. By winning a REVERE Award Twinkl is highlighted as a product that does just that: help students learn. Our team has worked extremely hard to create useful and inspiring teaching materials to really bring the world to life inside classrooms."
